

CT Section AWWA Classified : Licensed Residential Plumber

Check out this classified ad, Licensed Residential Plumber

Licensed Residential Plumber

The Regional Water Authority is seeking a Licensed Residential Plumber. The Licensed Residential Plumber is an experienced journeyman reporting to the General Manager, RWA Well Services. This role will perform residential plumbing, repair, maintenance and installation functions, including; well pump systems, water treatment, gas and oil fired equipment, remodeling new construction, drain cleaning, frozen pipe repair and all other general plumbing service work. This position is responsible for handling residential service issues, including diagnosis, repair installation functions. Primary job location areas: Middlesex, Tolland, New London, Hartford counties.

We expect dedication and high quality work from our employees. In turn, we provide competitive pay, a robust benefits package, training and development and opportunities for advancement. If you are ready for a fast-paced position with growth potential, contact the Regional Water Authority with your application.

Job Responsibilities:

- Residential services calls for plumbing repair, maintenance or new construction
- Performs residential Well Services repair and maintenance calls
- Monitors truck inventory, prepares requisitions for procurement of materials and supplies

- Customer facing communication responsibility regarding plumbing service diagnosis and repair requirements
- Coverage required for early starts and after hours emergency situations, as needed
- Participates in training to stay current with new technology and techniques
- Other duties as required to achieve the mission of RWA Well Services

Qualifications:

- P-2 Plumbing License or better; Heat License a plus
- Minimum 3 years of field experience in residential plumbing services
- Solid grasp of residential Well System configuration, diagnosis and repair
- Must have experience with jet and submersible well pump systems, including well tank and water treatment installs
- Excellent organizational skills
- Excellent ability to communicate (verbally and in writing) and work as a team
- Must be able to initiate and work through conflicts to achieve desired change
- Must be able to read and understand residential plumbing manual and specifications
- Ability to work independently and exercise sound judgment in performing duties
- Maintain valid Connecticut motor vehicle operator's license with clean driving history
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment while remaining calm and composed
- Ability to multi-task when assigning, reviewing and tracking numerous work orders and projects

The RWA is seeking candidates that reflect our STARS Values: Service, Teamwork, Accountability, Respect and Safety.

To apply, please visit the Regional Water Authority website at <https://www.rwater.com/about-us/work-with-us>

Human Resources

Regional Water Authority

90 Sargent Drive

New Haven, CT 06511

email: mgaratoni@rwater.com

AA/EO Employer

M/F/H/V